New Pastures Primary School aims to become a learning school by allowing staff, volunteers, visitor, governors and pupil's access to the rich information and resources available on the Internet, together with the development of appropriate skills to use such resources. These skills will be fundamental in the society our pupils will be entering.

PURPOSES

4. To protect school ICT systems from accidental and deliberate misuse that could put the security of the system or users at risk.
5. To provide guidance that is consistent with the acceptable procedures commonly used on the Internet, including those associated with 'netiquette', as well as, how to deal with such infringements.

14. Posting anonymous messages and forwarding chain letters is forbidden.
15. Use of the network to access inappropriate materials such as pornographic, racist or offensive materials is forbidden.

GUIDELINES - STAFF USERS

Internet safety awareness should be based on an ongoing programme of education within the school, and staff should not be excluded. In order to assist children and young people to stay safe when using the technologies, it is vital that staff are aware of the issues, both existing and emerging. Staff receive information and training on internet safety issues and new and emerging technologies on a regular basis

1. All members of staff need to be aware of possible misuse of online access and their responsibilities towards pupils
2. Staff will not be permitted to remove or copy sensitive or personal digital data from the school network unless the data storage device is encrypted and is transported securely for storage in a secure location

GUIDELINES – PUPILS

It is essential that all pupils are taught the relevant skills and strategies to remain safe when using the Internet and related technologies. This may be as discrete Internet safety lessons, as part of the computing curriculum, or embedded within all curriculum work wherever it is relevant. The requirement to raise awareness in children and young people of the risks associated with inappropriate contact via the Internet and content on the Internet is addressed as part of the wider duty of care to which all teachers are bound.

While no technological solution can be 100 per cent effective in guaranteeing safety, when using the Internet and related technologies, we can help to minimise the risks to pupils, particularly when supported by a clear acceptable use policy and appropriate Internet safety education. The school has a fire wall filtering system in place to prevent pupils from accessing inappropriate materials which are checked regularly. All security measures are reviewed regularly against the perceived risks to pupils and the latest technology available.

1. Pupils will only access the Internet under supervision of a member of staff
2. Pupils will be made aware of the need to be polite and responsible when using social network sites and not attack, abuse or bully any staff, pupils or other people
3. Pupils will not give out their home address, telephone number (personal information) or pictures of other pupils or staff without prior permission
4. Pupils will be encouraged to report any unpleasant material or message sent to them to a member of staff, appropriate adult or CEOP
5. Pupils should take effective precautions when using social networking sites to ensure their own personal safety and protect against identity theft
6. Pupils will not bring in software from outside school such as data storage devices.
7. Pupils must not bring personal devices such as mobile phones to school, but in emergency situations they must be kept in the teachers drawer or in the office until the end of the school day
8. Pupils are responsible for good behaviour on the Internet just as they are in school

GUIDELINES - PARENTS / CARERS

Parents have a key role to play in the Internet safety education of their children, through promoting Internet safety at home. ICT offers the opportunity for children and their parents to learn together, and Internet safety is an excellent topic that can encourage home–school links. Schools and parents / carers may wish to share good practice in order to further embed safety messages and achieve consistency between safety guidelines in the home and the school.

1. Internet access is a necessary part of the curriculum
2. Suitable guidance and supervision will be provided by staff during access to the Internet for all pupils
3. The School Internet Access Provider operates a filtering system that restricts access to inappropriate materials which should enable pupils to use the Internet facility safely and securely
4. All staff are aware of the possible misuse of online access and their responsibilities towards the pupils in school
5. Whilst every endeavour is made to ensure that suitable restrictions are placed on appropriate materials, the school cannot be held responsible for the nature or content of materials accessed through the Internet
6. Outside of school, parents or carers bear the responsibility for such guidance as they would exercise with other information sources such as television, radio, the telephone, films and other potentially offensive media

The school will raise parents' awareness of internet safety in letters or other communications home, and in information via our website.

If parents have any queries in relation to online safety, these should be raised in the first instance with the DSL.

INTERNET USE AT NEW PASTURES PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents / Carers,

As part of your child's use of computers to support learning, we are providing supervised access to the Internet for all children. As safe access to the Internet is important to all of us, we have carefully laid down guidance for use of the Internet for your child.

Please read the guidance carefully. It briefly tells you why your child needs access to the Internet and how the staff in school will supervise access. It also tells you how you can help at home.

A copy of the Acceptable Use Policy is available in school.

If you need further information please make an appointment to see Mrs. P. Belnavis who will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Yours Sincerely

P Belnavis
Head Teacher
