

Maths

- Count objects and numbers in stories
- Link numerals and amounts
- Pirate treasure dice game
- Dinosaur 'race to the water' dice game
- 'Frozen' Princess dice game
- Dice for dice games - spots for subitizing and numerals for number recogni
- Writing numbers/labelling
- Positional and directional Language - treasure hunts
- Shape and number treasure hunts

PSED

Going for Goals;

- New Year's Goal
- Setting a goal, over coming challenges to achieve it, Celebrating success!
- Independence-
- P.E sessions putting shoes and socks on
- Putting on and Fastening coats

English

Stories

- Pirate stories
- information books on water
- Winter story books e.g. Ridiculous, Percy the Park keeper 'One Snowy night'

Phonics

Words beginning with the initial sounds; d, g, c/k, u middle sounds - e, o

Nursery rhymes

- A sailor went to sea, sea, sea
- One potato two potato
- Row, row, row your boat.

Understanding the World

- How can we melt ice
- Release the treasure and the Antarctic animals from the Ice
- Week 4 - Chinese New Year- Year of the Snake

What can we do with Water?

Expressive Arts and Design

- Painting pirates
- Making pirate crafts
- Hats, maps, hook, telescope

Physical development

Fine motor

- letter + number formation
- Playdough models
- Fine motor activities in continuous provision and part of Parent sessions on Fridays

Gross Motor

- Balancing
- Ball skills
- Group games/ activities

History + Geography

- Learning about water - rivers, rain, flushing a toilet.
- Make a Pirate's treasure map
- Role play on the high seas
- Where are the Ice lands
- Tasting Chinese food
- Chinese culture

How Parent's can support their child

- Sharing stories, including school library books - talking about what is happening in the pictures.
- Work on the Next steps sent home after parent conferences - these are personal to your child.
- Support your child with their homework tasks - they love to share these with the class.
- Attend the Parent sessions on Friday mornings - This term we will be working, initial sounds, pencil control, counting and recognising numbers, which you can then support with at home.

ICT

- IWB - Maths, literacy and Computer skills activities
- CD player - stories, songs and rhymes
- Beebot programmable moving toys